CENTRAL CAROLINA FAIR BEGINS TODAY

Gates Will Swing Open at 9:30 O'clock.

THE WEATHER IDEAL.

Will Be Biggest and Best Fair In History of Association—Ideal Weather Looked For, Also Thousands of Visitors—Many Exhibits—Free Attractions—Music by Union Textile Band—Today's Racing.

The Central Carolina Fair begins this morning and for the next four days this annual event will be the feature in Greensboro and Guilford county. The gates will be opened this morning at 9:30 to admit the thousands that will be waiting on the outside. The prospects are for the largest attendance in the history of the fair association.

The weather prospects are fine indeed, the present predictions being for fair weather throughout the entire week. The rain of Friday and Saturday of last week settled the dust and prepared for ideal conditions. While the rain somewhat retarded the preparations it is thought that everything will be in first class shape when the gates open and by the afternoon at any rate.

Yesterday afternoon the buzz of saws and the strokes of hundreds of hammers told plainer than words of the active preparations of the showmen as well as the exhibitors. But few of the exhibits had been completed, but a majority of them were finished last night. Every bit of space has been taken and the exhibits will be both larger and better than in previous years. In the main building will be found nearly every article from a hemstitched handkerchief to a minature flying machine. On the midway there will be better and cleaner shows than ever before. The houci houci shows, which usually do business on Mondays before the fair, were conspicious yesterday by their absence. Secretary Daniel states that he refused to allow these shows this year.

The agricultural exhibits were coming in yesterday afternoon, but a majority of the farm products will be brought in this morning as it takes only a few minutes to get them in place. A majority of the live stock will be brought in this morning also. The poultry building is rapidly being filled and the management believe this department will be better than ever before. And a large portion of the exhibits will be by members of the Guilford County Poultry Association.

Then there will be better free attractions this year than ever before. Three balloons will race daily, provided the weather conditions permit. The preliminary arrangements have all been made and nothing remains for the aeronauts to do but swing the canvas bags into place and fill 'em with gas. Two balloons have raced before, but the patrons of the fair have never seen three of the big bags go up as one. Then there are the acrobatic stunts of the Cornellas, six in number. And at night there will be fireworks. Heretofore the management has charged an admission to the fireworks, but this year they will be free to all.

The music will be made by the Union Textile Band, composed of sixty or seventy pieces. This is the first time the management has been able to secure a local band.

Secretary Daniel was a busy person yesterday, giving his personal attention to the thousand and one details that are essential to the success of the fair. Here was a showman who was a little late in securing a location while just behind him was some one desiring information regarding a particular exhibit. Then there were the entry books to be checked, passes issued to the employees and show people and other matters too numerous to mention. "The busier I am the brighter the prospects for a fine fair," said Mr. Daniel, "so I am not minding a little extra work. I have been working for months to give the citizens of Central Carolina the biggest fair yet and if I succeed then I will be content."

The Public Service Company employees were also quite busy. A large number of the larger shows will use electricity for illuminating their tents and considerable wire was stretched yesterday. Then several of the exhibitors will use motors to operate their machinery.

A force was at work on the race track yesterday and the course is being gotten in fine condition. The recent rain enabled the management to put the track in much better shape than could have been done had the track been dusty. The outlook is for some of the finest racing ever seen in the state and it is confidently expected that some records will be broken. There will be racing each afternoon and there are numerous entries for each event. The following entries have been made for the three events this afternoon:

His physicians state that his recovery is practically assured. BEFORE JUDGE EURE.

Several Cases Disposed of In Municipal Court Yesterday Morning.

When Judge Eure convened Municipal Court yesterday morning he found several cases awaiting disposal. There were only two cases of importance, however.

Frank Green, the negro arrested Saturday afternoon on the charge of larceny, was given a hearing. Judge Eure sentenced him to one year on the roads. Green had previously been tried before Justice of the Peace Collins on the charge of the larceny of $10 from Zil Freeman and bound over to Municipal court by the justice. In this case Judge Eure added another year on the roads, making a total of two years. The authorities first thought the latter case would be highway robbery, but an investigation showed that the crime was larceny.

Dr. C. E. Moore was charged with assaulting Mr. E. W. Lyon, but the defendant was found not guilty.

Neal Holmes was found guilty of an assault, being fined $5 and costs. W. H. Pool was fined $5 and costs for an assault.

Gaston Rackley was arraigned on the charge of selling cigars on Sunday, the case being continued until this morning. R. M. C. Jones, a traveling man, was arraigned on the same charge. He was found guilty, judgment being suspended for the present. It seems that after the officer had cited Rackley to appear in court for the offense the traveling man stepped behind the show case and sold cigars. He was promptly cited to appear before Judge Eure.

Meeting Postponed.

The meeting of the Household Economics of the Woman's Club, which was to have been held Thursday, Oct. 13, has been postponed until Thursday, Oct. 20, on account of a large number of the members wishing to attend the fair.

RESOURCES OF BANKS IN STATE

Large Increase During The Past Year.

Gain of Over Seven Million Dollars According to Report of Corporation Commission—Assets of Banking Institutions In State Over $58,352,000—New Directors of Soldiers' Home—Plans For S. A. L. Passenger Station.

Raleigh, Oct. 10.—The resources of the state, private and savings banks in North Carolina have increased during the past year $7,730,964, the aggregate at the close of business September 1, being, according to a summary of reports just issued by the Corporation Commission, $58,351,185. The capital stock has increased during the year $1,008,187. The capital stock is $48,767,990 and the surplus fund $1,940,761, a gain of $350,892 and the undivided profits, $1,886,893, a gain of $173,191. The savings deposits have reached the creditable sum total of $6,470,586, an increase of $1,799,576 within the year. The deposits subject to check round up $22,828,437, this being a gain of $1,477,173. The total assets of the banks is $58,352,185.

Dr. D. E. Everitt and Col. W. P. Wood are commisisoned by Governor Kitchin as directors of the Soldier's Home. Dr. Everitt is appointed in the stead of the late Col. A. B. Stronach and Col. Wood in the stead of the late Dr. B. F. Dixon, state auditor. Dr. Everitt is a prominent dentist here and Col. Wood, of Randolph county, is the Democratic nominee for the state auditorship to fill out the two years remaining of the term of Dr. Dixon as state auditor.

Governor Kitchin issued a commission today to Dr. N. B. McCanlass, of Salisbury, as a director of the North Carolina railroad. He is to fill out the unexpired term of the late L. E. Heilig.

There was submitted to the Corporation Commission today for its approval the plans for a new passenger station by the Seaboard Air Line at Shelby to take the place of the old combination freight and passenger station against which citizens have been complaining to the commission. The proposed new station is a commodious one costing something like $10,000. The commision will pass on the plans later.

The receivership of the Grand Theatre here was made permanent today by order of Judge C. M. Cooke and Francis Cox continued for the permanent receivership. Its affairs are to be wound up without interfering with the lease of Lesse Finch so that the play house will continue right along and swing out according to program October 15, as the theatre for the Klaws & Erlanger (theatrical trust) plays coming this way.

There was another chapter today in the habeas corpus case involving Mrs. C. L. Petty and her six-year-old daughter. Two weeks ago Chief Justice Clark, of the Supreme court, directed that the child be restored to the mother by Mrs. D. M. Smith, of Bladen county, who claimed that the child had been given to her to rear. The mother claimed that she had only allowed the child to go to Mrs. Smith for a visit. The mother two weeks ago proved a good character and won the child. Since then, however, the opposition has gathered evidence claimed to impeach the moral fitness of Mrs. Petty to have the training of her daughter, hence the rehearing. Judge Clark heard the evidence against Mrs. Petty today and gave her lawyers until next Monday to gather evidence in rebutal. Just as the case was called this morning in the Supreme court room C. E. Musser informed his wife from whom he is separated, that he intended to take steps right away to procure a divorce from her. This caused Mrs. Musser to topple over in a faint that stirred no end of excitement for a time. It was by Mrs. Musser, who boarded at the same place as Mrs. Petty, that the latter proved her good character in the former hearing thereby gaining the verdict of the court. It is since that trial that the Mussers have separated and Mr. Musser, a well known linotyper here, is a chief witness against Mrs. Petty.

His many friends here are giving Mr. Edward L. Conn a hearty welcome back to Raleigh. He comes for a two weeks visit, being now on the staff of the Baltimore Sun as telegraph editor. He was for a long while on the News and Observer here both in the capacity of local man and editor of special editions, being especially well known all over the State. His friends are delighted at the exceptionally good record for efficiency that he is making in his enlarged field of endeavor.

Aclass of orphans from the North Carolina Masonic Orphanage at Oxford gave a concert tonight under the auspices of the three Raleigh lodges and were accorded exceptionally fine patronage. Their concert, too, was one of special merit. They are on a trip over the state in the interest of the orphanage.

CORPSE TRAVELS FREE ON PASS HELD IN LIFE

Widow of Lumberman Insists Husband Travel on Frank in Death as He Had Alive.

Portland, Ore., Oct. 10.—Claiming that her deceased husband was just as much entitled to travel on a free pass as when he was alive, Mrs. John Chadwick, of Black Bay, on the Hood Canal, staggered L. K. Purcell, of the steamship State of Washington, by refusing to pay freight on his corpse, which she had brought to the vessel for shipment to Seattle.

"My husband had a free pass on the State of Washington when he was alive," she said to Purser Purcell, "and no one is going to prevent him traveling on it when he is dead, poor fellow."

Mrs. Chadwick had placed her husband's body in its coffin on the steamship, and Purcell, who is one of the most considerate officers in the service of the Puget Sound Navigation Company, hesitated to order it put ashore when she refused to pay charges.

He reasoned with the widow, telling her that she really ought to pay the regular charge, and much as he personally would like to oblige her by allowing the corpse to travel on free he was only a purser and had no choice in the matter.

A crisis was rapidly approaching when Purcell deciding to let the higher officials of the company settle the matter, wired to L. A. Miller, freight and passenger agent for the Puget Sound Navigation Company.

An examination of the records satisfied Miller that Chadwick, who had a lumber tract at Black Bay, held a life pass.

When Purcell read the freight agent's reply telegram: "Let the corpse travel free and collect pass," the widow heaved a sigh of satisfaction and said she knew she would win out.

MR. JUSTICE TONIGHT.

Will Make Political Speech in Court House At Seven-Thirty O'clock.

Tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the county court house Mr. E. J. Justice will make a political speech. A large crowd is expected to be present as Mr. Justice will reply to the letter written by District Attorney Holton in reply to Chairman Sherrill's challenge for a joint debate between Mr. Justice and Mr. Holton.

It will be remembered that Mr. Holton in his reply suggested that Mr. Justice and Gov. Kitchin first discuss their differences as he, Mr. Holton, fully agreed with Mr. Justice in his views regarding the trusts and possibly the tariff.

Chairman Sherrill, stated last night that he had not decided who would preside over the meeting. He will try to arrange for special music by a brass band.

Mrs. C. S. Kirby Dead.

Mrs. Hattie Josephine Kirby, wife of Mr. C. S. Kirby, of 757 Percy street, died yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at St. Leo's hospital. The body was taken to the undertaking rooms of Huntley-Stockton-Hill Company and prepared for burial. It will be sent to Danville on No. 36 today for interment, Danville having been the former home of Mrs. Kirby. She was 23 years old and leaves her husband and four small children, one of them an infant.

They have labored arduously to make the contest for the prizes a success, which it certainly was.

TO AILING WOMEN.

A Little Sound Advice Will Help Many a Sufferer in Greensboro.

No woman can be healthy and well if the kidneys are sick. Poisons that pass off in the urine when the kidneys are well are retained in the body when the kidneys are sick. Kidney and bladder get inflamed and swollen, crowding the delicate female organs nearby and sometimes displacing them. This is the true cause of many bearing-down pains, lameness, backache, sideache, etc. Uric poisoning, also causes headaches, dizzy spells, lanquor, nervousness and rheumatic pain.

When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that cures sick kidneys. You will get better as the kidneys get better, and health will return when the kidneys are well. Let a fellow sufferer tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. Ella. J. Hughes, Dixie St., Burlington, N. C., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills at different times for several years and they have never failed to give me prompt relief. Some time ago I suffered from severe pains in the small of my back and I had frequent spells of dizziness, caused by disordered kidneys. I finally procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they quickly removed the cause of all my suffering. I have had slight returns of the trouble since but Doan's Kidney Pills always bring satisfactory relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cts. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

CIRCUS TRAIN ONE MILE LONG

Ringling Brothers Have Wonderful Traveling Circus Equipment.

A train one mile in length is required to haul the great Ringling Brothers' Circus from city to city. It travels in five sections. It has eighty-five double-length cars. It is the home of 1,280 men, women and children. They speak twenty-nine languages. The train is a Tower of Babel on wheels. The family within the Pullmans is very happy and contented, for they have every comfort. And they are domestic. Like the snail, they carry their house around with them.

The first section of the train carries the commissiary department. This section leaves town every night for the next day's stand just as soon as possible, so that there may be no delay in getting breakfast in the morning. A corps of 70 cooks, waiters and kitchen helpers and 150 horses travel on it. As soon as they arrive in town they unload the kitchen and hotel equipment and haul ith to the grounds. The fires are burning in the hotel range by the time they reach the "lot." Twenty minutes after, the kitchen and dinnig-room are erected, coffee is boiling and breakfast is well under way.

On the second section comes the menagerie and more horses. On the third train are the parade equipment and the bulk of the draft horses. On the fourth section are the fourteen acres of canvas, the hundreds of ring properties, rigging, poles, seats shops and other paraphernalia. The performers, the business staff and the elephants and camels come on the last train. MBy this time breakfast is ready.

And the cooks and chefs have had a big job. But they are used to it. They know how to handle three big banquets every day, because they are artists. They have prepared for this one greakfast 5,000 pancakes, 600 paunds of pork chops, fifteen bushels of potatoes, 150 gallons of coffee and many other things in like amounts. As soon as all this is eaten, they begin preparations for dinner. When dinner is over there is supper to think about. After supper the dining-room and kitchens are packed up. The ranges are folded into wagons. The dishes are washed and pigeon-holed. The queerest hotel in the world is whisked away to the next town, where the same program is repeated.

This is only one of the institutions found in the city of "Ringlingville." There is also a postoffice. Mail is received there from every quarter of the globe. And there is a dynamo plant, which furnishes power for 6,000 electric globes, arc lights and beacons. And there are all kinds of shops in Ringlingville. You can have a wagon made and beautifully painted. You can have a horse shoed. You can get a shave. You can have a tooth pulled. If you are not feeling well, there is a doctor to go to. You can have your shoes half-soled. You can have a suit of clothes made. You can get a Turkish bath. Then you can go to the library and read for an hour. All this time there is a detective force to protect you and a lawyer to advise you.

In the zoo there are 1,000 animals. In the stables there are 650 horses. In the dressing-rooms there are 375 performers. There is no other city like this one on earth. When it annexes itself to Greensboro on Monday, Octobre 24 it will be the capital of interest for this section of the country. It will have a floating population during a part of the day and evening that will number way up in the thousands. It will be the happiest city in the United States.

Capt. Bogardus Again Hits the Bull's Eye.

This world famous rifle shot who holds the championship record of 100 pigeons in 100 consecutive shots is living at Lincoln, Ill. Recently interviewed, he says:—"I suffered a long time with kidney and bladder trouble and used several medicines, all of which gave me no relief until I started taking Foley Kidney Pills. Before I used Foley Kidney Pills I had severe backaches and pains in my kidneys with suppression and a cloudy voiding. On arising in the morning I would get dull headaches. Now I have taken three bottles of Foley Kidney Pills and feel 100 per cent better. I am never bothered with my kidneys or bladder and again feel like my own self." Sold by Howard Gardner.

A VACATION THAT PAID.

How a Young Man Swung Around the Circle This Summer.

Circle.

"I am a young man who has had few advantages and when I was granted a month's vacation I decided to visit various parts of the country by the cheapest possible way and learn how all the people live—in city or on farm—and what they thought and how they looked.

"My starting point was New York city. I had $150, but I didn't intend to spend a cent more than was necessary. I went by trolley to Connecticut and Massachusetts. I didn't dress very well, so was conspicuous, and I stopped at many kinds of village inns, second rate boarding places, etc.

"A constant panorama of new things opened up before me (most of my life had been spent in New York city) and in Massachusetts I left the beaten track and went into the country. I worked two days on a farm for board, lodging and $3 besides and I came very near giving up my plan and staying there for my whole time. I went to Boston and spent two days, then bought a ticket for Chicago via the Canadian route.

"Arriving at Chicago I had spent $28 and had been on the road nine days. After Chicago I rode by train to Kansas at reduced rates. I wanted to see the prairies and the prosperous Middle West. By trolley, etc., I spent five days in the rural districts and then came back to the Mississippi and went down to New Orleans.

After two days there (perhaps the most interesting of all my trip) I got a job as freight clerk on a steamer running to Savannah. That trip was mighty interesting and actually earned me money. After Savannah I spent three days in Washington and then I went to Gettysburg and from there to Pennsylvania's anthracite coal regions, went down a mine and made the acquaintance of a mining engineer ad learned many things and then back to New York.

"Now I am a different man because of that trip. I made it a point to speak to everybody and keep eyes and ears open and I learned how to handle myself among men. I know something of our country now—I can shut my eyes and see negroes on cotton wharves, farmers sitting on reapers, out on huge Kansas wheat fields, clean Massachusetts farmers' wives making butter, black coal miners and steamboat hands playing cards with their greasy pasteboards on the hot freight decks.

"I took my opportunity—I saw the country and I think it's the finest vacation I ever had—and the cheapest, for I came back with $78."

DAY 762. PHONES NIGHT 1442

IT WAS LOVELY, BUT NOT SAFE

By ELIZABETH GAINES

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

"I have but one objection to you, Bert," said Celia—"you're altogether too serious. When your face is at rest you have a very harsh look. Your smile is delightful. Unfortunately you never smile."

"Have you any more compliments like that?" asked Bert. "For if you have you'd better dismiss me altogether."

Bert Cummings left his fiancee very much disgruntled. He unbosomed himself to his friend Arnold Priestley, who sat thinking while Bert talked. Finally Priestley said:

"I would advise you to try hypnotism. I know a man who can make people laugh or weep or anything else he likes. He doesn't put them to sleep, either. I shouldn't be surprised if he could make you smile. I'll take you to see him."

Cummings assented, and they went to see the hypnotist, Smithers. Smithers said he could make the young man smile, but as soon as the hypnotic effect was removed he would become serious again.

Bert said he believed he'd try it. He was to go to see Celia Effingham that evening and he would like to give her for once all the smiles she required.

At half past 8 that evening Miss Effingham heard the doorbell ring and flew to admit her lover. There was Bert with a beautiful smile on his face. Celia was right about Bert's smile. It was entrancing. There was a delightful curl to his lips, a dimple in each cheek, and his regular white teeth showed beneath his dark mustache.

"Oh, Bert," said Celia, clasping his hands, "how handsome you are when you smile! Keep it up!"

"I'll try. Ha, ha!" Bert responded.

"Because Helen and Molly and Lou are all coming in tonight to meet you. If you will keep up that smile all the evening they'll be delighted with you. You know how anxious I am that these my dearest friends should be pleased with you."

"I'll be cordial. Ha, ha, ha!"

There was another ring at the bell, and the girls were admitted.

"This," said Celia, "is Mr. Albert Cummings, Miss Helen Ward."

A bow and a ha-ha!

"And Miss Molly Malloy."

A bow and a ha-ha-ha!

"And Miss Louise Truesdale."

A bow and a ha-ha-ha-ha!

Albert's smile was contagious. His fiancee caught it, and it extended to the three other girls.

"Helen," said Celia, "you are my oldest friend. I propose that Bert shall sit by you first while we three have a bit of gossip by ourselves. Then I'll turn him over to Molly and then to Lou."

So down sit Mr. Cummings and Miss Ward to get acquainted.

"I'm very glad to meet you," says the lady. "Celia and I are such very old friends that one who is to be so much to her must be much to me."

Bert smiled that heavenly smile of his, and Miss Ward was beside herself. Never before had a man smiled at her like that. Every time she made a remark Bert smiled, or, rather, his lips wore a perpetual smile which was intensified at every remark. He made no other reply. Whether his hypnotic condition admitted of his receiving what was said to him and making a reply is a question. Probably his keeping his mouth shut was an advantage to him.

It was not very long before Celia concluded to change the girl with whom her lover was getting acquainted. Celia had observed Helen's gaze fixed on Bert's beautiful smile and thought it time to break the spell. So Molly was substituted.

"I'm so glad for dear Celia," said Molly.

"Ha, ha!"

"I consider her happiness the same as my own."

"Ha, ha, ha!"

In the beginning of a conversation Bert's smile was more of a laugh. After that it simmered down into a mere curvature of the lips. But the dimples were there and the pearly teeth under the mustache. The effect on Molly was the same as on Helen, only more so. Celia, seeing that Molly couldn't very long keep her hands off Bert, made the third change, putting Lou in Molly's place.

"I don't blame you for not being able to conceal your happiness," said Lou.

"Ha, ha!"

"It's delightful to be engaged, isn't it?"

"Ha, ha, ha!"

"One feels like smiling all the while."

"Ha, ha, ha, ha!"

"Let's have the conversation general," said Celia, moving her chair toward Bert and Lou. "Draw up, girls."

Celia tried to talk to one or two of the girls, while the other conversed with Bert. But it was no use. Every girl's attention was fixed on that beautiful smile. Celia rose, with great hauteur, and walked into the hall, motioning Bert to follow her.

"Go home," she said, "and get that idiotic grin off your face!"

Bert went to Smithers, who dehypnotized him. When Bert saw his fiancee again he had his hard look on his face.

"I don't like it so well," said Celia, "but it's safer—much safer."

As the campaign wears on, ex-Senator Butler is not gaining in popularity.

Conservation certainly is a great quarrel breeder. The latest is that Secretary of Agriculture Wilson and Chief Forester Graves are having some heated conversation over it.

Even backward, sleepy old Portugal has turned into a republic. The people everywhere are claiming their rights. November will probably show that they want them in this country also.

All signs point to a record-breaking attendance at Greensboro's great fair. This annual celebration is worth a lot to Greensboro and The Telegram has always found pleasure in helping boost it.

It was "feared" that Major Stedman could not stand the rigors of the campaign. Baseless fears. He is the youngest and friskiest of the whole bunch of campaigners.

The Telegram is often "boned" to leave something out of the paper. In this connection we can only say with Puck:

It's best to clip gay folly's wings
And take this little hint:
Don't be a fool and do the things
That won't look well in print.

Mr. Hearst is getting interested in aviation. He has offered a purse of $50,000 for a flight in a heavier-than-air machine from the Atlantic to the Pacific. It is to be hoped that Mr. Hearst will make a greater success as an aviation promoter than he has made as a political boss.

It is a source of regret to see men like Dr. P. W. Flagge and his brother leave Guilford county. Coming to this county about five years ago from St. Louis, they quickly showed themselves valuable citizens. But the lure of the West has seized them again and they have responded to it. At the same time, we have their word that so far as climate and neighbors go this is the best country they have ever lived in. And so, if they keep up this line of talk and we have their word that they will, they will be valuable advertisements in the West for this section.

A little child shall lead them. Says a dispatch from Winter, Wis.:

"If papa comes out will you promise not to shoot him? He is shot through the hands and wants to surrender." These words, spoken to Sheriff Mike Madden, at the edge of the clearing surrounding the besieged home, by little Helen, youngest daughter of John F. Dietz, brought to an end this afternoon the stubborn resistance of the man whose stand for the last six years against what he considered injustice has attracted widespread interest.

If anything were needed to increase one's love for childhood, incidents like the above would do it. "Little Helen" loves her outlawed father as warmly as any child loves her father. And she will love him to the end, sad and ignominious as it promises to be.

John M. Faison.

Raleigh News and Observer.

While George Butler's party was voting dead negroes, negro boys, and negroizing North Carolina, Dr. John M. Faison, following the example of Wade Hampton, donned a red shirt, and with other partiotic men put a stop to illegal and ignorant voting. Butler asks white men to vote again Dr. Faison because Faison stood bravely for white supremacy while Butler was trying to keep the ballot in the hands of ignorant negro voters. The people will not trust Butler and others responsible for the evils that made wearing the red shirts necessary.

BARELY A QUORUM.

Active Membership in United States Supreme Court Reduced to Six—Session Began Yesterday.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 10.—Not in years until today has the opening day of the Supreme Court of the United States rolled around with barely a quorum of justices ready on the bench. The death of Chief Justice Fuller left the court without a permanent head, while the passing away of Justice Brewer and the illness of Justice Moody, whose resignation becomes effective November 30, reduced the active membership to six.

One noticeable result was the change in the seating arrangement of the justices. This provided for Justice Harlan, the senior member of the court to move from the place of honor he had occupied for years at the right of Chief Justice Fuller, to the chair of the late chief justice himself, in recognition of his having become a temporarily the presiding justice of the court. This arrangement was designed to be effective until a new chief justice is appointed at least.

Although nearly 725 cases are on the docket, the largest number probably in the history of the court at the opening of a term, a program for the day was limited because the ceremonies attending the swearing-in of Justice Hughes, and those marking the death of Chief Justice Fuller. Tomorrow the court will begin in earnest the work of the year.

FAREWELL SERVICE.

Ladies of Christian Church To Give Reception to Rev. and Mrs. Bolton Tomorrow Night.

On Wednesday night at the Christian church the Ladies' Aid Society will give farewell service. This will be in the nature of a reception to Rev. J. W. Bolton and Mrs. Bolton, who will leave the city next week. Rev. Mr. Bolton will attend the meeting of the American Christian Association, which will begin next week. As the conference year is almost gone he resigned, the resignation to take effect after Sunday, in order that he might be saved the expense of coming back to serve only two or three Sundays.

Instead of the usual prayer meeting service there will be a congregational meeting, at which several talks will be made. The members will then repair to the basement of the church where the ladies will give a reception and each member will be given an opportunity of bidding Rev. and Mrs. Bolton goodby. All members are urged to attend.

Box Party At McLeansville.

The ladies of the McLeansville Betterment Association will give a box party at the McLeansville graded school Saturday evening, Oct. 15. The public is cordially invited. This part was postponed from a previous date on account of bad weather.

Cigarette Sets Bed on Fire.

A fire alarm from box 25 brought the fire department early last night to a small Clinton street house occupied by colored people. The fire was put out by the chemical. A half-burned cigarette is said to have been the origin of the fire, which started in a bed.

Music as a Medicine.

According to men of high medical authority, it has been decided and agreed that many of the ailments of mankind pack up their grips and leave when subjected to the strains of sweet music. Melancholia is dreadfully afraid of a lively air and most disorders of the "every day" sort take to their heels as "tigers before Teddy" when the melody of a cheering song is heard.

Then banish the doctors and "away" with medicines, for the words and music of the jolly, good song—"Dear Old East Side"—is to go free as a feature of next Sunday's New York World. This is the song that has helped draw crowds to Hammerstein's Victoria Theatre, New York, where Gus Edwards' "Song Review" is in full swing.

To be sure of getting this rejuvenating song order next Sunday's World from your newsdealers in advance.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

Interesting Program of Music and Readings At West Market M. E. Church Last Night.

The young people of West Market Street Methodist church enjoyed a most delightful evening in the Epworth League parlors last night. The occasion was the regular meeting under the auspices of the Home Mission department.

Most charming music and readings were rendered by the Glee Club of G. F. College.

Many new names were added to the League rolls and the Leaguers are entering into the work of a new year with the determination to make this the best year in the history of the League.

Delicious refreshments were served during the evening.

A Tip on Oats.

According to the Saturday Evening Post, a man who had a country place on Long Island came to New York one morning to do a little speculating. He was a great believer in tips.

On the ferryboat it came to him that he had had somehow a tip on oats. He couldn't remember just what it was, but somebody had told him to buy oats. So when he reached his broker's office he looked into oats a bit and bought some. Oats were active. He pyramided skillfully and by the close of the market was $7,000 ahead.

Of course such luck as that had to be celebrated, and it was. As the celebration went on the oats buyer told the story several times and each time took on importance in the recital as an oats buyer until he finally became the oats king. He reached his railroad station somewhat late and found the stableman waiting for him with a trap.

"By the way," said the stableman, "did you remember to order that five bushels of oats I asked you to buy this morning?"

LIBRARY WORKERS ARE ENTHUSIASTIC

Despite Fact That the Days Set For Campaign Were Most Unfavorable the Reports Last Night Were Encouraging —Time For Final Reports Extended Until Friday Night When the Campaign Will End.

Despite the fact that Friday and Saturday, the days fixed for the canvass for funds for the public library, the reports of the captains at the meeting last night were of a most encouraging nature. Taking everything into consideration the movement was a decided success, General Wharton stated. While less than a fourth of the people intended were solicited nearly a fourth of the entire amount was subscribed. In brief 137 people were solicited and the total amount subscribed was $569.

While this might look discouraging at first an explanation of the conditions will prove that the workers did well. Friday was the time set for the canvass and as it rained all day the time was extended through Saturday. It rained all day Saturday and the workers did not get out to do but little work. Then too a large number of the workers were out of the city at the time of the launching of the movement and returned only yesterday. They received their cards, but it was then too late to canvass. A considerable number of the workers who had solicited subscriptions were unable to be present last night and they failed to report to their captains. It is thought that had all the returns been in the total amount would have been in the neighborhood of $800.

The workers were in fine spirits and when the final report had been made it was at once moved to extend the time of the canvass until Friday night in order that those who had not had an opportunity to do any work might "get in the game." It was pointed out that at the same per cent. if all the subscriptions had been solicited the amount would have been more than $2,000. It was also stated that a number of people, whose names had not been placed on cards would like to contribute and some had so stated. It was ordered by the generals that when any person stated they would like to contribute the captain or private so addressed should receive the subscription.

It is interesting to note in connection with the reports that Capt. A. B. High, whose company was one of the most active of the young men's regiment in the Y. M. C. A. campaign, took the lead with 25 subscriptions, totaling $85. For the Citizens Mr. M. C. Stewart's company led with 14 subscriptions and $55.50. Mr. R. C. Hood's company made the biggest average, 7 subscriptions and $50.50.

MR. SHARPE'S FUNERAL.

Last Sad Rites Spoken At Alamance Church Sunday Afternoon.

The funeral of Mr. W. A. Sharpe, whose death occurred on Friday, was held from Alamance Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. A. Wilson, assisted by Revs. C. E. Hodgin and Melton Clark. The largest number of people ever assembled at the church were present to witness the last sad rites. A large collection of beautiful floral designs sent by the friends of the deceased completely covered the casket.

Following the services, which were quite touching, the remains were interred in the church graveyard and the newly made mound covered with flowers. The pall-bearers were from the officers of the church.

IT SAVES YOU MONEY.

The special half price sale of Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia by Howard Gardner means the saving of a few dollars on every family's yearly bill for medicines.

Mr. Gardner has so much faith in the superior merit of this medicine that he says: "If Dr. Howard's specific does not cure you, come back to my store and I will return your money."

This remedy is not an ordinary medicine. It is the favorite formula of a well known physician, and has the endorsement of hundreds of physicians of eminence in their profession who prescribe it in all cases of constipation, dyspepsia or liver trouble, knowing from experience that it will make a complete and lasting cure.

STOLE A CHECK AND FORGED ENDORSEMENT.

Robert Aiken, Colored, In Calaboose Charged With Two Crimes.

Robert Aiken, colored, is in the calaboose awaiting trial on the charges of larceny and forgery. Aiken first stole a check and then forged the endorsement to the paper in order to get the cash called for. He was caught with the goods, as it were, and will likely get a stiff sentence after Judge Eure hears the testimony of the winesses.

Aiken, who until Saturday was in the employ of the Greensboro Motor Company, Saturday morning before leaving the garage on West Market street picked up a check for $11.75 payable to the company and signed by Mr. Julius Cone. He forged the name of Mr. H. M. Chamblee, a member of the firm, and later signed his name Jack Campbell as endorsements. He carried the check to the establishment of A. Horwitz on East Washington and got the cash, at the same time picking out a sample of a suit he wanted made. He was to come back yesterday and have his measure taken for the suit.

Yesterday morning Mr. Horwitz carried the check to the bank, but was horrified to find that it was "no good." His next step was to seek the aid of the police. He was told to find his man and then let the officers know where he was at and the arrest would follow. As Mr. Horwitz walked down Davie he spied his man inside a negro tailoring shop some doors above The Telegram office. Instead of notifying the officers Mr. Horwitz tried to collar his man and make him give up the money he had secured. The negro plugged Mr. Horwitz one on the jaw and leaping over his prostrate form made for the door, the merchant being close behind. Down the alley they went for dear life, Mr. Horwitz yelling excitedly, "stop him, stop him." The negro got away, but the officers were enabled to get a description of him and located him soon thereafter at his home in the eastern suburbs of the city.

Two Extra Policemen.

Chief of Police Neelley has added two policemen to the regular force, the new members to serve during the fair. The new officers are Messrs. J. C. Watson and W. H. Rawlins. They will begin work this morning.

Football Tomorrow.

Tomorrow afternoon at Cone Park the Greensboro High School will meet Bingham on the gridiron. As this will be the first football game of the season on the local grounds a large crowd is expected.

A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph institute operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R .R. and Wireless Officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Cincinnati, O., Philadelphia, Pa., Memphis, Tenn., Davenport, Ia., Columbia, S. C., or Portland, Ore., according to where you wish to enter.

MEN'S LIVES ARE NARROWER THAN WOMEN'S

Concentration Prevents the Fullest Enjoyment of Each Day's Possibilities.

Somtimes I think men have very much less capacity for large living than woman says Erman J. Ridgway in the Delineator for November. Men concentrate better, perhaps, but the effect is not all desirable.

Men live one life at a time. In early manhood they live in the future—a life of dreams, visions, hopes, sentiment. In middle age they live in the present Concentrating on their lifework. Making a record. Caching in on early dreams. Little in the past. Timid, in their waning power, they essay no mighty deeds, but dream over the dreams and fight over the fights of their splendid days. Is it not so?

How different from woman's life—or so it seems to me. If I have observed truly, women live their lives from young womanhood to the beautiful finish. Every day is all-round, complete and lived to the limit. No day passes without its stroll thro' the past,—

So sad, so sweet,

The days that are no more.

No day passes without its dreams for other days to be. And each passing day, however active in the tasks of every day,—nay, every hour of every passing day—in a woman's life it seems to me the heart life, the life of sentiment, keepsstep with the mind life and the body life.

What a pity men cannot live this threefold life! What a pity for the men! But especially, what a pity for the women! How often must women be hurt by the apparent hardness or indifference of forgetfulness of their mates!

Many times I have seen the pain in the eyes of uncared for women in the presence of the rare and rarely cared-for woman. And how a man robs himself when he no longer shows how much he really cares! For men do care. No man would barter his wife for honor and riches if compelled to choose. He believes he can have her and them. He believes she will enjoy them too. He feels that she is part of him, that they are one. Of course they are not if he is going to take it for granted.

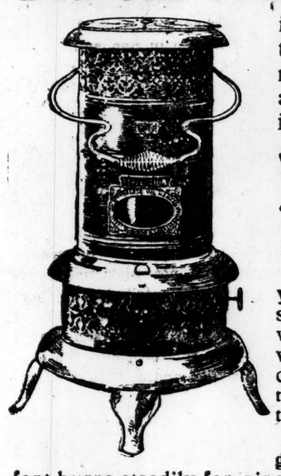
You Can Work Near a Window



in winter when you have a Perfection Oil Heater. It is a portable radiator which can be moved to any part of a room, or to any room in a house. When you have a

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless

you do not have to work close to the stove, which is usually far from the window. You can work where you wish, and be warm. You can work on dull winter days in the full light near the window, without being chilled to the bone.

The Perfection Oil Heater quickly gives heat, and with one filling of the font burns steadily for nine hours, without smoke or smell. An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap, put in like a cork in a bottle, is attached by a chain. This heater has a cool handle and a damper top.

The Perfection Oil Heater has an automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back, so the wick can be quickly cleaned. The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged and can be unscrewed in an instant for rewicking. The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in japan or nickel, is strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

LIQUID CURES ECZEMA WHERE SALVE FAILS

In regard to skin diseases medical authorities are now agreed on this:

Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid.

WASH THE GERMS OUT. A simple wash: A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D. D. D. Prescription, penetrates to the disease germs and destroys it, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

A 25-cent trial bottle will start the cure, and give you instant relief.

WHAT IS VINOL?

It Represents Twenty Years' Work of Two Eminent Chemists.

After twenty years of study two eminent French chemists discovered a method by which the alkaloids or medicinal elements of the cod's liver might be separated from the useless oil or grease, retaining all the good of cod liver oil and dispensing with the bad, as the oil has no medicinal value. These medicinal elements blended with tonic iron and a mild medicinal wine—make Vinol.

Vinol is not a secret medicine, as its ingredients are printed on every bottle, and in all cases where the healing, strengthening influence of cod liver oil is needed, Vinol will give better results, for it contains all the curative medicinal properties of cod liver oil, but without the oil, and it is easily assimilated and acceptable to the weakest stomach.

For all run-down, weakened conditions, and to cure chronic coughs, colds and bronchial troubles, Vinol is unexcelled. We sell it always with the understanding that if it does not do all we claim for it, we will refund the money paid us for it. Fariss-Klutz Drug Co., Greensboro, N. C.

CORELLI ENDS THE WORLD.

Novelist Issues Shivery, Sulphurous Book Showing the Future.

London cor. N. Y. American.

Marie Corelli has written another book, and the matter is as sulphurous as the title, which is "The Devil's Motor."

Primarily the book describes the adventures of the devil at the wheel of what appears to be a combination aeroplane and automobile, and through it all runs the apocalyptic vision of the end of the world, according to Corelli.

As described by the author of "Wormwood" and "The Romance of Two Worms," the devil's motor rushes forth, while in its train go all the forces that are destined to ruin mankind. When the time of this diabolic ride occurs the world is one vast network of cities and factories. All the solitudes of the earth have gone.

"There will be no virtue," says Miss Corelli in a prose which just escapes being blank verse. "Honor shall be as a rag on a fool's back. Gold will be the pulse of life."

"The people of the world," exclaims the exulting devil, "will fight for gold, steal it, pile it up, count it, hug it, sleep with it, die with it, sell their souls and bodies for it. God has sworn to give unto me all those who reject Him, and the hour for gathering up this gift has come!"

Corelli then pictures the morphia fiends, the maniac anarchists, the courtesans and plotters against peace to whom the world shall shortly be surrendered. When the full agony has been piled up the novelist pictures the devil's motor as plunging over a precipice into a bottomless abyss of the Unseen and the Unknown. Then the sun rises slowly, setting the seal of God on the closed history of the world.

"It Beats All."

This is quoted from a letter of M. Stockwell, Hannibal, Mo. "I recently used Foley's Honey and Tar for the first time. To say I am pleased does not half express my feelings. It beats all the remedies I ever used. I contracted a bad cold and was threatened with pneumonia. The first dose gave great relief and one bottle completely cured me." Contains no opiates. A man is only his real self when he thinks no one is watching him.

Missed the Squeak.

Some persons like one sort of shoe and some another, but the kind which was desired by Pierre, the French Canadian mill hand, has never enjoyed a wide popularity.

"Shoes for Sunday," Pierre stated to the young man who advanced to meet him as he entered the salesroom of the big shoe factory.

He then sat heavily down on one of the red plush seats and allowed the salesman to insert his feet in a pair of bright yellow shoes. When they were fairly on, Pierre stood, moved his feet this way and that, took a few steps and, shaking his head, sat down again.

"What's the matter?" asked the clerk. "Do they hurt you? Are they too tight?"

Pierre shook his head violently.

"She no tight," he said, "but also she no talk. Shoes for Sunday must talk, talk, all the way up in church for to soun' stylish, see?"—Youth's Companion.

Oil of the Porpoise.

The porpoises killed in winter are the fattest and produce most oil. The largest size measure about seven feet in length, five feet in girth and weigh about 300 pounds. Such a porpoise yields from six to seven gallons of oil. The blubber of a big porpoise weighs about 100 pounds and is one and a half inches thick in summer and two in winter. The jaws of the porpoise yield a superior quality of oil. When hung up in the sun it readily drips away into cans provided for the purpose, the quantity of oil thus procured, however, being not more than half a pint to the jaw. The oil from the blubber gives an excellent light and is in demand along the coast for lighthouse use. It has no offensive odor.

Busy All the Time.

Little Howard came in the other day, crying and rubbing several bumps caused by a series of "butts" administered by a pet sheep.

"Well, Howard," said his sympathetic auntie, "what did you do when the sheep knocked you down?"

"I didn't do anything. I was getting up all the time."—Delineator.

RAPID ROMANCE ENDS.

Young Bride of W. P. Dodge, Won by Wireless, Home to Mother.

New York American.

The romance of Walter Phelps Dodge and Helen Louise Steck, which began with love at first sight at a dinner in Sherry's, and was continued by cable and wireless until the millionaire's daughter joined and married the author-lawyer in London, has ended in a separation less than a year after the wedding.

Mr. Dodge, 42 years old and the father of three children by two former marriages, has been deserted in his London home by his 17-year-old bride, who is now in New York.

Walter Phelps Dodge has had a romantic career. Born in Syria, where his father was a missionary, he traveled extensively and finally married a circus equestrienne in Edinburgh. She obtained a divorce.

His second wife was Mrs. Ethel B. Coles, an English woman. The ceremony took place in Sioux Falls, S. D., a fortnight after she had obtained a divorce. She died not long after the marriage.

Mr. Dodge, by this time, had developed a strong preference for life in England, where he is a member of the London bar. And it was only on a brief visit that he came to New York last autumn.

His arrival followed shortly the crushing of the stage ambitions of two of the prettiest young women that ever came to Ne wYork. The Misses Helen and Edna Steck, daughters of a Philadelphia coal operator, had determined to become stars of the theatre, and their father, believing that the grind of rehearsals would curb their ardor, let them practice in the chorus of an opera company. But when it came time for public appearance he compelled the girls to withdraw.

Miss Edna married a man named Croxton and they were soon parted. But Miss Helen was heart-whole, save for her wasted love for the stage, when Mr. Dodge was presented to her at a dinner in a private dining room at Sherry's. Mrs. Steck and Miss Edna were present. Mr. Dodge was so smitten that he immediately rearranged his plans and postponed his return to his beloved England.

When he did depart he kept up a constant wooing by wireless and cable, and within a few days Miss Steck joined him in London, where they were quietly married.

There's a Big Difference in $4 Shoes

Some shoes are exceptionally stylish but oh, how they hurt when you wear them! Others are so mighty comfortable that you'd like to wear them if they didn't LOOK quite so ungainly and clumsy.

Then again some are not serviceable—you don't get your money's worth. It's possible to COMBINE style and comfort with good hard wear; the proof is Ralston Shoes.

We sell them.
